DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-23 are pending.

Drawings

2. This application has been filed with informal drawings that are acceptable for examination purposes only. Formal drawings will be required when the application is allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- 4. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Barkley et al US Patent No. 6,202,066. Barkley discloses an implementation of role/group permission association using an object access type.
- 5. With regards to claims 1, 5, Barkley teaches the providing of a user-defined data type (Barkley, column 6 lines 17-18, column 11 lines 20-25 account information), providing security information for the user-defined data type (Barkley, column 7 lines 40-

- 6. With regards to claim 2, Barkley teaches the associating of the security information with each individual data instance (Barkley, column 7 lines 29-32, OAT associated with an object).
- 7. With regards to claims 3, 11, 13, Barkley teaches the associating of an access list containing a list of identifiers of authorized entities (Barkley, column 7 lines 36-41, users assigned permissions).
- 8. With regards to claims 4, 10, 15 and 22, Barkley teaches the providing of one or more functions to perform predetermined one or more tasks for the user-defined data type and invoking the one or more functions to process data instances according to the user-defined data type (Barkley, column 4 lines 40-56, close an account, read an account, write to files, delete files).
- 9. With regards to claims 6-7, 17, and 23, Barkley teaches everything described above and further teaches the receiving of a request to access the data and granting access to the instance of data based on the security information (Barkley, column 7 lines 29-32).
- 10. With regards to claims 8, 18-19, Barkley teaches everything described above and further teaches the providing the user-defined data type in an object relational database system (Barkley, column 4 lines 53-56).

Art Unit: 2134

- 11. With regards to claim 9, Barkley teaches the storing of the user-defined data type in an object relational database system (Barkley, column 4 lines 53-56, column 11 lines 1-7, created file).
- 12. With regards to claim 12, Barkley teaches an authorized entity comprising an authorized user (Barkley, column 6 lines 3-5).
- 13. With regards to claim 14, Barkley teaches the invoking of the security function to remove an identifier from the security information (Barkley, column 8 line 66 column 9 line 7).
- 14. With regards to claims 16, 20-21, Barkley teaches the providing of a second data type built upon the first data type where the second data type inherits the security information and one or more security functions of the first data type wherein the second data type further defines one or more additional security functions (Barkley, column 9 lines 48-55, column 8 lines 56-65).
